

STAYING THE COURSE IN TURBULENT TIMES: A Dialogue with the Ariadne Project on Future EU Energy and Climate Policy

Monday, 9 Dec.
08:30	Registration & Coffee
09:00 - 10:30	The pros and cons of options for restricted integration of CDR into the ETS
10:30	Coffee Break
11:00 - 13:00	A need to mend the bend? Industry decarbonization and market stability in the years ahead (Part I) Invite-Only, in-person only
13:00	Light Lunch
14:00 - 15:30	A need to mend the bend? Industry decarbonization and market stability in the years ahead (Part II) Invite-Only, in-person only
15:30	Coffee Break
16:30 - 18:00	Different Venue: Bruegel Brussels What to expect from the Clean Industrial Deal: Saviour for the EU Green Deal, or a slippery slope to national protectionism? Invite-Only, in-person only

Tuesday, 10 Dec.
9:00	Registration & Coffee
9:30 - 11:00	Closing the transfer and support gap in the ETS2 - is targeting regions better than targeting households?
11:00	Coffee Break
11:30 - 13:00	Climate policy when "the hit gets real" - is "leaving no one behind" a paradigm to uphold?
13:00	Light Lunch
14:00 - 15:30	Decarbonization of buildings -between energy efficiency, renewables and ETS2
15:30	Coffee Break
16:00 - 17:30	Renewable and Low Carbon Hydrogen in the EU Regulatory Framework: Challenges & Conditions for Developing a Renewable Hydrogen Economy

Wednesday, 11 Dec
9:00	Registration & Coffee
9:30 - 11:00	Achieving the EU's energy and climate targets until 2030 – a discussion of the different approaches, their potentials and limitations
11:00	Coffee Break
11:30 - 13:00	Transition tipping points: achieving the sectoral transformations needed for 90% emissions reductions by 2040
13:00	Light Lunch
14:00 - 15:30	Between climate action and competitiveness: lead markets as a tool of EU green industrial policy

